COACHES CORNER

Danny Hale is entering his 15th season as the head coach of the Bloomsburg University football program. He also spent five years as the head coach at West Chester.

At Bloomsburg, Hale has posted a career record of 119-42-1 and holds the school record for most coaching victories. Overall in 19 years as a head coach he has a mark of 159-55-1 (.739) and is ranked among the top 10 active coaches in NCAA Division II in winning percentage. He has led the Huskies to ten shared or outright PSAC Eastern Division titles and five NCAA post-season playoff berths.

In 2006, the Huskies posted a mark of 12-2, won the NCAA Northeast Regional title, while advancing to the NCAA Division II national semi-finals along with capturing the PSAC Eastern Division title. Hale was named the PSAC East Coach of the Year, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II District I Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award. For being named a finalist he was featured on an ABC-TV special hosted by Keith Jackson.

The Huskies also reached the NCAA championships in 1996, 2000, 2001 and 2005. During the 2000 season the Huskies were 12-3 and advanced to the NCAA championship game, eventually losing in the title contest. The team reached the finals after rallying from a 19-point deficit against UC-Davis in the national semi-finals to post a 58-48 win. Hale earned the American Football Coaches Association Division II National Coach of the Year following the season.

Hale has also earned AFCA District I Coach of the Year honors seven times, including back-to-back years of 2000 and 2001. He has been named the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year nine times, including four straight from 1994 to 1997.

Hale also coached Irv Sigler, the winner of the 1997 Harlon Hill Award as the nation’s best Division II football player. Sigler finished the year as one of the few players ever in Division II history to average more than 200 yards per game rushing.

Scott Browning is in his 2nd season as head football coach of the Fighting Scots, and had a 6-5 record in 2006. Browning was the offensive coordinator for the Fighting Scots from 2001 to 2006 under former coach and current IUP coach Lou Tepper. He previously served as the offensive coordinator for five seasons under Tom Holliman.

Browning has served as Edinboro’s offensive line coach the previous 12 years. He joined the Edinboro program in 1986 as the running backs coach under Steve Szabo. After two seasons on the offensive side of the ball, Browning moved to the defensive side until 1994, when he moved back to offense as the offensive line coach. He had remained in charge of the linemen since that time, coaching such All-Americans as Jeremy O’Day, Joe Valvoda and Greg Bzorek. The last two years, Browning’s offensive line led the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference in fewest sacks allowed.

A 1981 graduate of Ohio State University with a bachelor’s degree in Education, Browning has served as an assistant coach at three NCAA Division 1 institutions. Prior to joining the Fighting Scot staff, he coached receivers and running backs at Ohio State for two years while serving as a graduate assistant.

EDINBORO (2007: 1-1, 0-0 PSAC WEST)

The 2007 Edinboro Fighting Scots bounced back from an opening week loss to West Chester, running past St. Anselm of New Hampshire by a score of 58-3.

On offense, the Fighting Scots were led by sophomore running back Houston Brown. Brown set the tone in the first quarter, rushing for touchdowns of 28 and 23 yards, as well as a 17 yard touchdown reception en route to a 21-0 lead. The Scots offense, under the direction of sophomore quarterback Trevor Harris, was impressive as well. Harris hit two short touchdown strikes, one to senior tight end Kyle Witucki and the other to sophomore wide out Ryan Rybicki, giving the Fighting Scots a convincing 35-0 lead. St. Anselm would add a field goal late in the second quarter to cut the lead to 35-3 at halftime.

In the second half, Harris struck again, this time finding freshman Gary Nolen on a seven yard strike to extend the lead to 42-3. On the next possession, Junior tailback Ulsee Davis broke off a 72 yard touchdown run to make the score 42-3, breaking the game wide open. The Fighting Scots would reach the end zone one more in the fourth quarter, when senior fullback Caleb Meyer capped a 12-play, 88-yard drive, when he plowed in from ten yards out to finish off the scoring.

Harris finished the game 22-29 for 265 yards and three touchdowns, and currently is fourth in the PSAC for total offense. Sophomore running back Jamell Dennis led all rushers with 118 yards on 16 carries. Brown finished his day with 10 carries for 98 yards.

Defensively, the Fighting Scots had big efforts from freshman linebacker Dan Nebraski, who led all tacklers with six stops, as well as senior defensive tackle Chris Amico, who had two sacks. The Fighting Scots secondary, which only allowed 131 yards passing against St. Anselm, was led by senior free safety Tom Davidson, who had six stops and an interception, as well as senior cornerback Taurean Valentine, who picked up five stops.

Edinboro did not have such success in their opener against West Chester, as they fell 32-16. The Fighting Scots turned the ball over four times, including three in the second quarter, and Harris was sacked eight times. West Chester surged out to a 25-3 lead into the third quarter before Valentine blocked a punt at the West Chester 16 yard line. Two plays later, Harris found junior wide out Rich Cerro for the Fighting Scots first touchdown of the season, cutting the lead 25-10.

After another West Chester score, Edinboro would find the end zone once more, as reserve sophomore quarterback Joe Wanson directed a 9-play, 69-yard drive that resulted in a two yard run by freshman running back Antaun Johnson.

Harris finished the day 18-29 for 141 yards and a touchdown, while Brown led the rushing attack with 14 carries for 65 yards. Rybicki led all receivers with six catches for 38 yards.

On defense, Edinboro was led by freshman linebacker Greg Sondag, who had eight tackles, as well as senior Amico, who tallied his first three tackles for loss of the season. He is currently number two in the PSAC in that category, averaging 2.5 per game.

The special teams are handled by freshman placekicker Justin Gomes, who has been perfect on field goals this season, hitting Cal’s lead to 24-13.

.795

Winning percentage for the Huskies this decade (67-18).

BLOOMSBURG (2007: 1-1, 0-0 PSAC East)

The Huskies suffered their first setback of the 2007 season Saturday as the 19th-ranked California, (Pa) Vulcans upset 12th-ranked Bloomsburg in a non-division game at Cal’s Adamson Stadium. It was the first victory for the Vulcans over the Huskies since the 1984 PSAC Championship game in Hershey, a 21-14 victory for California. It also is the Huskies first regular-season loss against a Division II team since November of 2004, when Bloomsburg fell 35-24 to West Chester in the regular season finale.

The Huskies could not find an answer for Cal’s junior running back Brandon Lombardy. Lombardy opened the scoring with a 17-yard run to cap Cal’s 82-yard opening drive, then added a two-yard scoring burst midway through the third quarter that gave Cal a 24-7 lead. Lombardy finished the day with 143 yards on 30 carries. Cal Quarterback Joe Ruggiero hit two second-half TD passes of 10 yards and a 30-yards to lead the Cal Offense.

Senior Jamar Brittingham once again carried the load for the Huskies, gaining 62 of BU’s 219 yards of total offense on the ground, while senior running back Josh Heck added 49 yards on 14 carries. Sophomore quarterback Dan Latorre never was able to find a rhythm against a fast and aggressive Cal defense, which sacked the Huskies’ quarterback six times. Latorre finished the day 2-of-5 passing for 89 yards, with 81 of those yards coming on a first half strike to senior wide out Brahin Bilal. For the season, Latorre is 18-25 for 371 yards and two touchdowns.

Brittingham opened the scoring for the Huskies with an eight-yard TD run with 5:46 left in the first quarter, cutting the early Cal lead to 10-7. In the third quarter, Brittingham tried out his throwing arm for the first time this season, tossing a 38-yard scoring pass to Bilal with 5:49 left to go in the quarter, cutting Cal’s lead to 24-13.
Bilal finished as the top receiver, finishing with 3 catches for 137 yards and a touchdown. Bilal now has eight catches for 263 yards and a touchdown, second in the PSAC in yards-per-game. Reserve freshman quarterback Alex Landis saw his first action of the season, completing the only pass he attempted.

The Husky defense was impressive, especially considering the amount of time the Huskies spent on the field. The Vulcans held a 33:26 to 26:03 edge in time of possession. Rob Biernat was all over the field for the defense, registering 11 total tackles, nine of them solo.

Dominique Price and Andrew Ellis had big efforts off the bench for the Huskies secondary, both having four stops against a talented Vulcans receiving corps. The Huskies did have eight tackles for loss against the Vulcans, including one sack form senior defensive tackle Earl McNeil.

The game was a stark contrast to the Huskies opener, a 42-28 win over C.W. Post. In that game, Brittingham finished with five touchdowns for the Huskies. Brittingham is now the holder of numerous NCAA and conference records. He is the all-time leader in touchdowns scored in PSAC history with 66. Brittingham has now run for 143 yards on 35 carries this season. He leads the PSAC with 40 Points scored this season.

Biernat also tied for the tackles lead against C.W Post, making nine stops, six of them solo. He now has 20 on the season, good enough for fifth in the conference.

THE SERIES

Edinboro holds the lead with an all time record of 5-2 against the Huskies.

COACH HALE SOUNDS OFF:

ON THE HUSKIES...

“Going into the Cal game, I felt that The Vulcans had great team speed and during the game we discovered how fast they are. They are very talented and athletic. We played hard, but didn’t make the necessary plays to change the outcome of the game...”

ON THE FIGHTING SCOTS...

“Edinboro is a very physical football team with quality athletes. They play an aggressive brand of defense and a spread offense. They’re solid in their kicking game. All 3 areas (offense, defense & special teams) will have to play well.”

HUSKIES IN THE NFL

On April 30, 2006 the New Orleans Saints selected former Bloomsburg All-American offensive tackle Jahri Evans in the fourth round (108th overall) in the NFL draft.

In his rookie season a year ago, Evans started all 18 games for the Saints, as the team went 10-6 in the regular season and made a run to the NFC Championship game. Evans was an all-rookie selection for his efforts.

Before Evans, the last BU alumni in the NFL was Eric Jonassen who was drafted as lineman for the San Diego Chargers in 1992. The most notable former Husky in the NFL was the Giants’ Bob Tucker who had an 11-year career in which he caught 422 passes for 5,421 yards and scored 27 touchdowns. Tucker still ranks fourth all-time in school history with 131 receptions.
LAST MEETING

These teams last met on September 16th, 2006, with Bloomsburg taking a 28-10 come-from-behind win over the Fighting Scots.

Trailing 10-7 in the fourth, the Huskies mounted a go-ahead 80-yard drive. With a third and eight from its own 22, Latorre scrambled for 26 yards to keep the drive alive. Latorre then completed a 46-yard pass to Ream on third and 22 to give Bloomsburg the ball at the Edinboro seven-yard line. Jamar Brittingham dove in from a yard out to put Bloomsburg in front 14-10. Later in the fourth, the Huskies defense stopped an Edinboro drive on downs at the Bloomsburg 39-yard line. Latorre hit Brahin Bilal for a 51-yard gain down to the Edinboro nine yard line. Brittingham scored to make it 21-10.

Brittingham gained just 78 yards on the day with the three scores, while Latorre was 12-22 for 183 yards and a score and three interceptions.

RANKINGS DROP

The Huskies lost to Cal last week dropped them to number 25 in the American Football Coaches Association rankings. Bloomsburg also fell to number 20 in the d2football.com poll.

A LONG TIME

Bloomsburg has not dropped back-to-back games in the same year since the 2003 season when it lost at Shippensburg in week two and then fell at Lock Haven in week three. The Huskies did drop consecutive games over two season in 2005 and 2006 when it lost its playoff game to East Stroudsburg ('05) and the season-opener to James Madison ('06).

RED ZONE REDUX

Through two games this season, the Huskies are first in the PSAC in red-zone efficiency, converting on all 7 of their trips inside the 20. All seven scores have been touchdowns. This success is carried over from last season, where the Huskies converted 77.3 percent of the time and scored 29 touchdowns. Defensively, the results have not been as outstanding. Opponents have scored 85 percent of the time they have gotten inside the Bloomsburg 20 yard line, with six of the seven scores being touchdowns.

STREAKING AT REDMAN?

Coming into today’s game, the Huskies are 12-0 in their last twelve games at Redman Stadium, not including playoffs. The last time Bloomsburg dropped a regular season contest at Redman Stadium was back on October 2nd, 2004, when the Huskies fell to East Stroudsburg, 30-24.

NEED FOR THE GROUND GAME

The Huskies are just 5-8 since 1997 when rushing for less than 100 yards in a game. When gaining between 101 and 150, the Huskies are 6-10 since 1997, while when gaining more than 150 yards the Huskies are 71-11. When Bloomsburg holds an opponent under 100 yards in a game, the Huskies are 38-3 since 1997.

JAMAR THE QUARTERBACK

Tailback Jamar Brittingham completed his second career pass in the game with California with both completions going to Brahin Bilal. (Brittingham’s other completion came in the 2006 NCAA semi-finals). Brittingham is now 2-2 for 91 yards on the season and one score.

GETTING CLOSER

With 143 yards rushing on the season and 4,397 for his career, Jamar Brittingham is now with 638 yards of breaking the school career rushing mark of 5,034 held by Irv Sigler. Brittingham is also just 12 yards of moving into fifth place (ahead of Gerald Thompson of Edinboro ’98) on the PSAC’s all-time rushing list.

Did You Know....?

Jamar Brittingham now has 68 career touchdowns, a PSAC record. 66 of those came on the ground.
Wide receiver Brahin Bilal has moved into 8th place all-time on the school's receiving yards list with 1,628. He needs just 15 more to take over 7th place from Rocco Forgione '02. Quarterback Dan Latorre has now thrown for 2,769 yards in his brief Bloomsburg career good for 8th on the school's all-time list. He needs just 175 to take over 7th place from Mike Govas '85, who has 2,943.

The loss to California snapped the Huskies 10-game regular season road winning streak against Division II opponents. The 13 points scored by Bloomsburg were the fewest for Bloomsburg in a regular season game against D-II opponents since getting 12 against Kutztown in 2005. The 13 points are also the fewest scored in a regular season loss to a D-II opponent since the Huskies lost 48-10 to Shippensburg in 2004.

Backup quarterback Alex Landis, whose father coached the Huskies in the mid-1980's, completed his first pass as a collegiate player in the loss to California.
