Bloomsburg University, a member of Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education, is a four-year coeducational public university founded in 1839. Through the stages of its development from a normal school to a teachers college to a multipurpose state college and finally to a university in 1983, the institution has retained its emphasis on liberal arts and career education.

Bloomsburg is recognized as one of the best 100 public universities in the United States, and excellence, ranging from its 18 national championships (NCAA-AIAW-NAIA) to its international reputation in a number of its academic programs, is an attitude found throughout the faculty and staff.

About 90 percent of Bloomsburg’s students come from throughout Pennsylvania, creating a diverse mix of cultures and ideas. It’s a place where friendships that last a lifetime begin. And it’s a busy place — with more than 160 student organizations and activities, NCAA Division II athletic programs and a popular recreation center.

The university’s Division of Continuing and Distance Education serves students through non-degree credit courses, noncredit minicourses, off-campus classes, credit for life experience and distance learning courses on public television.

The Town of Bloomsburg, located in the Susquehanna River Valley, has a population of about 12,000 people. The central business district is just three blocks southwest of campus, and includes more than 80 retail stores, restaurants, and the Bloomsburg Fair in September. More stores, restaurants and theaters can be found along nearby Route 11 and at the Columbia Mall, northwest of town.

The university is within a one-hour drive from such cities as Hazleton, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre and Scranton; 1.5 hours from Harrisburg; 2.5 hours from Philadelphia; 3 hours from New York City and Baltimore; and four hours from Pittsburgh and Washington, DC.

The Bloomsburg University football team is under the leadership of Danny Hale, one of the winningest coaches in the NCAA Division II ranks. Hale will begin his 16th season at the helm of the Huskies in 2008 and also spent five years as head coach at West Chester University.

At Bloomsburg, Hale has posted a career record of 125-44-1 (.742) and holds the school record for most coaching victories. Overall in 20 years as a head coach he has a mark of 165-57-1 (.742) and is ranked among the top 10 active coaches in NCAA Division II in winning percentage. In his 15 seasons as head coach at Bloomsburg he has led the Huskies to 10 outright or shared Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Eastern Division titles and five NCAA postseason playoff berths. In the period from 2000 to 2007 the Huskies are also one of the most successful NCAA Division II programs with a combined record of 72-20 (.782).

In 2006, the Huskies posted a mark of 12-2 and won the PSAC Eastern Division title, while also capturing the NCAA Northeast Regional title and advancing to the NCAA Division II national semifinals. Hale was named the PSAC East Coach of the Year, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II District I Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award. By virtue of being a finalist for the award he was featured on an ABC-TV special hosted by Keith Jackson.

In 2005, Hale led the Huskies to a record of 11-1, including an unbeaten (11-0) mark in the regular season. It was just the fourth time in school history that a Bloomsburg team went through the regular season without a loss. He also earned PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year honors and the AFCA District One Coach of the Year award.

The Huskies also reached the NCAA playoffs in 1996, 2000 and 2001 seasons. During the 2000 season the Huskies were 12-3 and advanced to the NCAA championship game, eventually losing in the title contest. The team reached the finals after rallying from a 19-point deficit against UC-Davis in the national semifinals to post a 58-48 win. Hale earned the American Football Coaches Association Division II National Coach of the Year following the season.

Overall Hale has also been named the AFCA District I Coach of the Year honors nine times, the third highest total in the program's history. Twice he has won the honor in consecutive seasons (2000 and 2001 and 2005 and 2006). He has been named the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year 10 times, including four straight from 1994 to 1997 and now back-to-back in 2005 and 2006.

Among the great players Hale has coached include Irv Sigler, the winner of the 1997 Harlon Hill Award as the nation’s best Division II football player. Sigler finished the year as one of the few players ever in Division II history to average more than 200 yards per game rushing.

In addition, Hale also coached Jamar Brittingham, a 2005 top three finalist for the Harlon Hill. Brittingham finished 2005 as college football’s top rusher and scorer and was fourth in Division II in all-purpose yards. At the end of Brittingham’s career in 2007, he was the all-time leading rusher and scorer in the history of both Bloomsburg and the PSAC and set a total of 29 school and conference records.

Hale’s other standout performer has been Jahri Evans, a fourth round draft choice of the New Orleans Saints in 2006. Evans, an offensive lineman, has started each game for the Saints the past two seasons.

seasons along with two post-season games. He was named to the NFL All-Rookie team in 2006.

At West Chester Hale posted a mark of 40-13 and won three PSAC East titles and advanced to the NCAA playoffs in 1988.

Prior to West Chester, Hale was an offensive line and defensive coordinator at Colgate from 1981 to 1983. Prior to Colgate, Hale was the offensive line coach at Bucknell from 1975-80 and was defensive coordinator/linebacker coach at Vermont in 1974.

Hale is a graduate of West Chester, earning his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in Health and Physical Education in 1968 and 1973. He was an all-conference pick at West Chester and earned the team’s most valuable player in the 1967 State Championship game, while also lettering three times for the track and field team. He is a member of the West Chester Football Hall of Fame and the Delaware County Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

In 1968 Hale signed with the Pottstown Firebirds, the semi professional farm club of the Philadelphia Eagles, before entering the Marine Corps where he played middle linebacker for the Quantico Marines. Following a three-year stint, he was honorably discharged as a first lieutenant in 1972.

Hale and his wife Diane are the parents of four children, Roman; Brandie; Tyson; and Christina and have nine grandchildren.

Paul Darragh
Assistant Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator-Linebackers

Paul Darragh enters his 12th season at Bloomsburg. Prior to working with the Huskies, Darragh worked for two years at Indiana (PA) as the linebackers coach. Darragh started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Temple from 1987-89. From there, Darragh was the linebackers’ coach at Northeastern and Gannon before being promoted to defensive coordinator at Gannon. He moved from Gannon to the defensive coordinator post at William Paterson College before joining the IUP staff. A three-year starter and captain for Temple, he graduated in 1985 after earning All-East honors as an inside linebacker.

Under Darragh’s leadership the Huskies’ defense has ranked in the top-half of the PSAC in total defense four of the past seven seasons, including back-to-back second place finishes in 2000 and 2001. The Huskies have also ranked among the best in the PSAC in run defense finishing first or second in three of the last six years. The 2000 NCAA national finalist team led the PSAC and was eighth in Division II in rushing defense with a school-record mark of 85.1 yards per game. In 2006, the Huskies finished 23rd in the country against the run with a mark of 103.8 yards per game.

Darragh and his wife Yelena live in Orangeville with their children Sasha, Lemuel and Gabriel.

Tom Pajic
Offensive Coordinator• Recruiting Coordinator
Wide Receivers/ Quarterbacks

Tom Pajic begins his fifth season at Bloomsburg as offensive and recruiting coordinator. He also coaches the quarterbacks and wide receivers. Pajic has been integral to the success of the Huskies offense by guiding the offensive unit to school single-season records in 2005 for rushing yards, total offense, points and touchdowns.

In addition, BU ranked fifth nationally in rushing yards per game in Division II in 2004 (299), eighth in 2005 (284) and ninth in 2007 (261). In 2007 the Huskies were 24th in total offense (439) and ninth in scoring offense (39.8), while in 2006 the Huskies were fifth nationally in passing efficiency (171) and 23rd in rushing offense (177).

Since 2004 the Huskies offense has produced seven All-Americans, three All-Region selections, two Harlon Hill nominations, two PSAC East Player of the Year awards, two PSAC Rookie of the Year awards, 27 PSAC East All-Conference selections and have set 28 school and conference records.

The Huskies have also led the PSAC in rushing yards per game and have been in the top four in total offense and scoring two of the last four years.

Pajic, a 1991 Bloomsburg graduate, came to the Huskies after spending four years as the wide receivers coach at South Florida (USF). Prior to working at USF, Pajic spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Wilkes University, and has also worked at Hofkes, Fordham and Gettysburg.

While at USF, Pajic coached the receivers for the Bull’s spread offense as well as the kick and punt returners. Under his leadership the Bulls’ were ranked nationally in both categories. While coaching these units 29 school records in receiving, all-purpose yards, punt and kick returns were established. During his tenure he coached two All-Americans and an Academic All-American.

At Wilkes in 1999, Pajic helped the Colonels to a 7-4 record and the ECAC Southeast title. Wilkes was ranked third in the Middle Atlantic Conference in total offense and passing; and number five in rushing. Post season honors included an MAC Player of the year, five MAC selections and two Academic All-Americans.

In 1998, Pajic spent one season coaching the wide receivers at Hofstra. He was also the recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and tight ends coach at Fordham from 1995 to 1998. He began his coaching career in 1994 at Gettysburg College where he coached the wide receivers, tight ends and punters.

While a player at Bloomsburg, Pajic set a school record for most receptions in a game with 17 against Lock Haven.

Pajic, his wife Julie, daughter Grace Caroline and son, Thomas Anthony, Jr., reside in Bloomsburg.
Brian McBryan
Offensive Line, Assistant Offensive Coordinator

Brian McBryan begins his 16th season at Bloomsburg.

He previously coached the offensive line for one year at Bucknell, was the defensive line coach at Susquehanna University for six seasons, and served prior stints at Milton, Danville and Renovo-Bucktail high schools. McBryan is a 1980 graduate of Lock Haven, where he was a three-year starter as an offensive lineman. He was a member of the Bald Eagles’ 1979 PSAC championship squad.

At Bloomsburg McBryan has coached seven offensive linemen to All-American honors, including current NFL standout Jahri Evans, who was a two-time All-American and finalist for the Chet Henicle Defensive Secondary

Chet Henicle starts his fifth season at Bloomsburg after previously coaching three years at Wingate (NC) University where he was the defensive backs coach along with recruiting coordinator and camp director.

Prior to working at Wingate, Henicle spent four years at Lenoir-Rhyne College (NC), two years as receivers coach and two years as the defensive backs coach. He started his college coaching career in 1996 at Bloomsburg where he was in charge of the receivers. He also spent one season at Waynesboro High School coaching the running backs and defensive backs.

A Bloomsburg graduate, Henicle was an All-American in two sports. During his career he was recognized as the school’s Undergraduate and Senior Male Athlete of the Year.

As a catcher and center fielder on the baseball team, Henicle was named team MVP twice along with garnering All-Region and All-PSAC honors twice. As a junior he finished second in the nation in interceptions with eight. As a senior he was named an All-American and was chosen to play in the Snow Bowl, the top Division II all-star game in the country.

At native of Waynesboro, Pa., Henicle and wife Jane Marie reside in Bloomsburg.

As a starting safety on the Bloomsburg football team, Henicle was named the team’s MVP and defensive MVP along with garnering All-Region and All-PSAC honors twice. As a junior he finished second in the nation in interceptions with eight. As a senior he was named an All-American and was chosen to play in the Snow Bowl, the top Division II all-star game in the country.

At native of Waynesboro, Pa., Henicle and wife Jane Marie reside in Bloomsburg.
Bill Perkins
Defensive Line, Strength & Conditioning

Bill Perkins is in his 15th season as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach.

During his tenure as defensive line coach, Perkins has helped coach 20 players to first team All-PSAC East honors and one player to All-American honors.

A 1989 graduate of Slippery Rock, Perkins is a health and physical education teacher and athletic director in the Bloomsburg School District. At Slippery Rock, Perkins played in 38 of 40 games as a defensive tackle for the Rock from 1986-89. He registered 129 career tackles and was honored as a PSAC West second team selection in 1989.

Perkins and his wife Debbie are the parents of two daughters, Leighnah and Willow.

In Michigan he was the head football coach at Holy Redeemer High School for the 1994 season. A native of New York City, Daly attended Queens College, NY in 1972.

Daly lives in Danville with his wife Toni, his daughters Allison, Andrea and son Maurice. He is employed at Geisinger Medical Center in the department of Gastroenterology.

Ed T. Rush
Running Backs, Kickers

Ed Rush begins his fifth season at Bloomsburg after a 38-year career working for the NBA. At BU Rush coached All-American Jamar Brittingham, the all-time career rushing leader in both Bloomsburg and PSAC history, for four years. Brittingham went on to set nearly 30 school and conference records and is currently a member of the NFL’s Atlanta Falcons.

In 2006 Rush did a tremendous job preparing the Huskies’ running backs despite numerous injuries to his personnel. Overall, Rush used three starting tailbacks with each back gaining more than 100-yards in a game at least once. Also, Rush prepared three starting fullbacks and saw eight different runners (not counting quarterbacks and receivers) carry the ball at least once during the season.

Prior to coming to Bloomsburg, Rush was an NBA official from 1966 to 1998 and officiated over 2000 games, including NBA All-Star Games. In 1998, he then joined the NBA Basketball Operations department as the NBA/WNBA Director of Officiating.

Prior to his work with the NBA, Rush worked as a teacher and football coach for Marple-Newton High School in suburban Philadelphia. He is a graduate of West Chester University where he played varsity football. He is also a nationally recognized motivational speaker specializing in leadership.

Rush was recently named one of the 50 most influential people in sports officiating and in the summer of 2008 was awarded the Medallion Award by the National Association of Sports Officials for having given back the most to sports officiating.

In addition to his football duties with the Huskies, Rush is a special adviser to the commissioner of the Pac-10 conference on officiating.

A native of Philadelphia, Rush and his wife Trudy, the parents of four children, reside in Bloomsburg and have two grandchildren.

Howie Reed will start his second season with the Huskies and has more than 35 years of coaching experience. He has previously coached at Pope John XXIII High School, Sparta, NJ; Hawthorne (NJ) High School; William Paterson University; Passaic (NJ) High School; and Elizabeth (NJ) High School. In 1988 he took over as head coach at his alma mater Waldwick High School and won the Group 1, Section 1 State Championship. Later he was head coach at Sussex Central High School in Georgetown, DE.

He and his wife Janet have been married for 36 years and in the off-season split time between Ocean Pines, MD and Bonita Springs, FL.

Alf Melito

Melito is a graduate of Bloomsburg State College where he played nose guard and offensive guard for the Huskies. He was also selected to the PSAC All-Conference Team. After graduation in 1969 he was an elementary school teacher and later principal in the Berwick school district.

He is married to his wife Dawn and has three children and two stepchildren.

Charlie Zaremba
Offensive Assistant

Now in his seventh season with the Huskies, Charlie Zaremba began his career with Bloomsburg as a student volunteer in the 2002 season. He now serves as the team’s technologies manager and an offensive assistant.

A native of Hazleton, he is a 2005 graduate of Bloomsburg University. He is currently a technical writer for a company that provides technical solutions to state and federal education agencies.
When opposing coaches look at the Bloomsburg University football roster this season they will not see the one name that caused them much discomfort and distress for the last four years...Jamar Brittingham. The all-time leading rusher in both school and the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference history has moved on to a possible career in the NFL. While his absence makes them feel good, it could have the opposite affect on Danny Hale. However, Hale goes into the 2008 feeling optimistic...in a realistic sort of way.

“I know we lost a player who is arguably one of the greatest this conference has ever produced, but we have a lot of experience returning led by our quarterback Dan Latorre,” said Danny Hale. “That alone gives me reason to feel positive about this year.”

Latorre has started every game over the last two years and shown to be a player who wants the ball in hand at the end of the game. Without a signature tailback to start the season, Latorre’s play in the early going will go a long way in determining the fate of the Huskies.

Defensively, the Huskies did lose some key people like Rob Biernat and Corey Gipe, but a solid group of returning players should offset the losses.

“I actually think we will be a notch better than we were last year at this time,” Hale said. “We have a lot of players who saw significant time last year returning and that will be a plus for the team.”

One major change for everyone coming to play the Huskies at Redman Stadium this season will be the new look of the place. Included in the $3.2 million dollar upgrades are both Field Turf and lights.

“We are looking forward to all the changes. There were advantages to natural grass, but I understand the need for Field Turf. There are big differences in artificial surfaces from the past to now and the guys are looking forward to playing on the surface.”

OFFENSE
QUARTERBACK
Latorre will be in his third year as the starter. The junior has already thrown for more than 4,000 yards in his career and last year gained nearly 200 yards rushing while scoring seven touchdowns proving he can win a game with either his arm or his legs. He is like a coach on the field and will even be calling some of his own plays this season. Andrew Flogel will be backing up Latorre. He is young and inexperienced, but should improve with more practice time.

RUNNING BACK
In addition to losing Brittingham, the Huskies also lost starting fullback Jay Collins and tailback Josh Heck to graduation. While there is no feature tailback right now, this is not a concern for Hale. “We have several players who should be able to step in and share the load,” continued Hale. “It will be tailback by committee in the early going.”

Among the players that Hale will look at to shoulder the burden of stepping into the shoes of Brittingham are Marc Best and James Sweeting, two returning players, along with newcomers Derrick Price, Kenny Domzalski and Kyle Passeri. At the fullback spot, Stefan Adams, who rushed for 249 yards and scored three touchdowns, will get the nod. Adams is a runner with tailback speed who moved over to fullback as a freshman. He will be backed up by Ryan Maggs and Matthew Cox.

WIDE RECEIVER
Lost to graduation was Brahin Bilal, the team’s deep threat the last two years. The Huskies will go into practice in the fall looking to identify someone to fill that role. Co-captain Kyle Ream is back for his second season as a starter and is someone that Latorre has come to count on. Among the others who will be in the mix are Jordan Weisman, Ryan Barr, Cory Stiger and Ryan Dickerson.

TIGHT END
 Sophomore Ben Weaber stepped in as a starter last year and was basically the only true tight end on the team. He became a “go-to” guy for Latorre because of his great hands and ability to catch the ball. Backing up Weaber will be Ty Traisiter, a former offensive lineman with good hands and Ryan Barr, who could move from his wide receiver spot to tight end.
DEFENSE
Anchoring the revamped defensive line will be Jon Ochs, a co-captain for the season. Ochs is extremely tough to block and is a very special player. An extremely hard worker, Ochs is an impact player for the Huskies. Joining him up front will be Alfonso Nathan, a player who had a great spring season. Earl McNeil also returns after seeing a lot of playing time last year. Also look for Dave Huot, Justin Presley, Todd Givler, Brandon Groff, John Pettine and Marcus Zimmerman to all see time in the rotation of players.

LINEBACKER
With the graduation of Rob Biernat, Greg Myers will take over in the middle. Myers, who runs well, came on strong last year and will be a leader for the Huskies. On the outside look for Dan Tillotson at one spot, while Mike Varanavage and Thomas McFarland will both see time at the other spot. Anthony Smith will back up Myers in the middle with David Onorato and John Sigman backing up on the outside.

DEFENSIVE BACK
Game-changer Jesse Cooper will be the feature performer in this area for the Huskies. Cooper, who scored three touchdowns last year, two on interception returns, will be a three-year starter. Domenique Price has moved to safety, but could return to the corner where he started several games last year. Also seeing time on the corner will be Oscar Rivera, Vince Browning, Mark Scatene and Colt Greer. At safety, the Huskies have several players who will be in the rotation including Price and Andre Ellis who has playing experience. Alex Landis moved over from quarterback and had an excellent spring at safety. Also look for Nick Ciccone to be key player at this spot for the Huskies.

SPECIAL TEAMS
Placekicker Jon Koenig returns for his third season and has steadily improved in many areas. Ream will handle some of the punting duties, while Alex Landis will be the holder for Koenig. Mark Keeley will be the long-snapper with Ty Traister the short-snapper. Cooper will return both punts and kickoffs giving him an opportunity to showcase his great speed.

OVERALL
“This is a group of guys who are hard working and great to work with,” said Hale. “I believe they can be competitive with everyone on our schedule, which is very tough with Ashland and California, Pa. to start the season.”

“We will need, though, to improve our passing game in the early going to balance our featured ground game,” Hale added. “But, I am confident that we should be able to put points on the board.”

Hale is also impressed with his recruiting class.
“We had a very good recruiting class,” said Hale. “I do not see any incoming players coming out and moving into a starting role, but I do see some who could step right into backup roles.”

How will the Huskies finish in the PSAC East, Hale is never one to make predictions, but expects a tough battle.

“West Chester will feature a strong defense and would be the team to beat,” said Hale. “East Stroudsburg is always a tough game; Millersville has a new coach so that is a question mark and Kutztown played us very hard. Add in Shippensburg coming over from the western division and conference-newcomer C.W. Post will be very formidable. It is going to be a battle right to the end as usual.”
2008 Captains

Kyle Ream
Sr., WR, 6-2, 205
Elliotsburg (West Perry)
Major: History

He enters his senior year with high expectations and a breakout year lies ahead. He has great speed and athletic ability. He is exciting to coach and the sky is the limit for him. The son of a coach, his work ethic, attitude and approach to the game is never questioned. He is consistent in his play and improved this spring. He should be one of the top receivers in the PSAC. Caught a career-high six passes against both Edinboro and IUP last year. Will also see time as the team’s punter. Averaged over 36 yards per kick during the 2006 season.

Jon Ochs
Sr., DL, 6-0, 250
Wind Gap (Nazareth)
Major: Business Management

Great strength and speed combined with his leadership skills make Ochs a complete player. He was a 2007 All-PSAC East player who should challenge for higher honors this season. He is “freakish” in the weight room and may be the strongest overall player on the roster. A player who gives all he has on every play, Ochs will be a force both against the run and coming off the edge in passing situations. He will also play on the offensive side of the football on short yardage.

Azzalina had a great spring at center and will be called upon to make a contribution this fall. He will work at both center and guard and has made great strides in strength and agility.

Beall returns as the starting center for the 2008 season. He was an All-PSAC player in 2007 and will be a dominant force this season. He will be looked to for leadership and is a candidate for All-American honors.

Bosso is very dominant at the point of attack and was a first team All-PSAC guard in 2007. He led an offensive line which paved the way for Jamar Brittingham to break the PSAC rushing record. His knowledge of the system gives him an opportunity for All-American honors in 2008. A two-year starter.

Casey is battling for the starting position at offensive guard and is a key for the Huskies success this season. He is one of the strongest players on the offensive line and has potential for post-season honors. Was third-team All-State coming out of high school.
Finnerty gained valuable experience during spring practice. With added size and strength, he has the potential to make an impact during the 2008 season.

Kantz returns as the starting offensive tackle and has become a dominant force on a young offensive line. He missed part of the 2007 season due to injury, but has increased size and strength and will be a key contributor this fall.

Kurtz had a great spring at offensive tackle. He has improved his quickness and has become more physical at the point of attack. With improved strength he must provide depth on a young offensive line.

Truscott won the starting position at tackle and will be an impact player this fall. With added strength and his knowledge of the system, he has potential for post-season honors.

Walker became a dominant player during the 2007 season. One of the strongest players on the team, he has improved his flexibility and quickness. He must make a major contribution in 2008. He is a candidate for post-season honors.

Watrud gained valuable experience as a back-up guard in 2007. He has continued to improve his strength and agility and must provide depth on the offensive line this season.
Originally recruited as a defensive end, Givler has worked hard in the weight room to bulk up and become a force inside at the tackle spot. He gained valuable experience last season playing in every game and has earned a starting spot. Strong and tough are two words that best describe him.

Groff has quietly become a very steady force at the defensive end position. He provides leadership and results each time he steps on the field. Had a great spring and will carry that momentum and his experience over the last two years to provide both depth and production to the defensive line. Groff is an extremely intelligent player and he has the physical skills to match.

Returns after an injury in 2007. Huot has the ability to make big plays. He had a great camp last season and is expected to play at both tackle spots and also on passing downs. Spends his free time hunting and fishing and enjoys the outdoors.

McNeil comes in with extensive experience and should provide the ability to stop the run inside. Played very solid last season and he will be looked upon this year to continue with his consistency and also provide leadership at the tackle spot. Had three solo stops and one sack versus California. Made a career-high four tackles against Millersville. Is a great student in the classroom and he is also a member of the university choir.
Defensive Line

Alfonzo Nathan Jr., DL, 6-1, 220
Philadelphia (Milton Hershey)
Major: Psychology

Came out of nowhere last year as a walk-on and played in all 10 games. Is a true pass rusher who has superior speed coming off the edge. He has earned the starting job at the "cat" position for the 2008 campaign. He is deceptively strong and can hold his own against the run, and he will be counted on to create havoc in the opponents offensive backfield all year.

John Pettine
R-Fr., DL, 6-3, 250
Gilbertsville (Archbishop Carroll)
Major: Geo-Science

One of the most versatile athletes on the defensive front. He can play all four positions and has worked to put himself in a position to see plenty of action this fall. Great ability and extremely tough.

Justin Presley
Jr., DL, 6-3, 243
Philadelphia (George Washington)
Major: Business Management

Possesses all of the tools necessary to be a prototype defensive end; strength, size, speed. Returns from the offensive side of the football where he unselfishly helped an injury plagued TE spot last year. Can be used both in passing situations and on run downs as he has the ability to make things happen at the point of attack. Has the potential to have a big year for the Huskies.

Marcus Zimmerman
So., DL, 5-11, 265
Lititz (Manheim Central)
Major: Undeclared

Played in all 10 games as a true freshman. Has a super first step and is very active from his defensive tackle position. Had three tackles for loss during the year. He is very conscientious in the weight room and he provides leadership with his work ethic.
