THE COACHES

Danny Hale is in his 16th season as the head coach of the Bloomsburg University football program. He also spent five years as the head coach at West Chester.

At Bloomsburg, Hale has posted a career record of 134-45-1 (.747) and holds the school record for most coaching victories. Overall in 21 years as a head coach he has a mark of 174-58-1 (.748) and is ranked among the top 10 active coaches in NCAA Division II in winning percentage. He has led the Huskies to 10 shared or outright PSAC Eastern Division titles and five NCAA post-season playoff berths.

In 2007, the Huskies posted a mark of 7-3. In 2006, the Huskies won the NCAA Northeast Regional title, while advancing to the NCAA Division II national semi-finals along with capturing the PSAC Eastern Division title. Hale was named the PSAC East Coach of the Year, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II District I Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award. For being named a finalist he was featured on an ABC-TV special hosted by Keith Jackson.

The Huskies also reached the NCAA championships in 1996, 2000, 2001 and 2005. During the 2000 season the Huskies were 12-3 and advanced to the NCAA championship game, eventually losing in the title contest. The team reached the finals after rallying from a 19-point deficit against UC-Davis in the national semi-finals to post a 58-48 win. Hale earned the American Football Coaches Association Division II National Coach of the Year award following the season.

Hale has also earned AFCA District I Coach of the Year honors seven times, including back-to-back years of 2000 and 2001. He has been named the PSAC Eastern Division Coach of the Year nine times, including four straight from 1994 to 1997.

Hale also coached Irv Sigler, the winner of the 1997 Harlon Hill Award as the nation’s best Division II football player. Sigler finished the year as one of the few players ever in Division II history to average more than 200 yards per game rushing.

Jim Kiernan is in his second season as head coach of the Golden Knights.

A proven winner in the rugged Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC), Kiernan spent eight seasons as the Saginaw Valley State assistant head coach and offensive coordinator prior to arriving at Gannon. The Cardinals were 69-24 (.742) overall and 62-17 (.785) in GLIAC contests during Kiernan’s tenure. The program advanced to the NCAA Division II Tournament five times in the his final seven seasons. SVSU was ranked among the nation’s top 25 seven consecutive seasons.

Kiernan previously served as the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach, wide receivers coach, and strength and conditioning coordinator at Division III Lakeland (Wis.) College during the 1998 season under former Saginaw Valley State head coach Randy Awrey.

Kiernan was a four-year letterman at his alma mater, St. Lawrence University in Canton, N.Y. Kiernan earned a B.A. in Economics from St. Lawrence in 1990.

GANNON (2008: 4-6, 2-5 PSAC West)

It’s tough to defeat a nationally-ranked team on a level playing field, but it’s even more difficult when losing the turnover margin. The Gannon football team turned the ball over nine times and gave up a self-inflicted safety on a bad snap while falling 35-10 to Indiana (Pa.) during Homecoming Weekend at Gannon University Field.

Indiana (Pa.) scored 20 points off Gannon turnovers during Saturday’s victory. The Crimson Hawks led 10-3 after Jeremy Ditzler’s 45-yard field goal with 5:42 remaining in the first half. It marked Ditzler’s career-long and was the seventh-longest field goal in school history.

Gannon then seemed to have the momentum after Chris Cook forced a fumble on IUP’s next possession. Danny Giegerich recovered at the Gannon 29-yard line. However, on third down, the snapped sailed past the Gannon quarterback and went into the endzone for a safety.

IUP converted a field goal on its ensuing possession and tacked on three more points at the first-half buzzer following a Gannon interception. The Crimson Hawks went to halftime with an 18-3 lead after a wild final three minutes of the second quarter.

Levar Goff hauled in his third touchdown reception of the year, converting a 43-yard scoring pass from Zach Boedicker with 6:49 to play in the third quarter. IUP responded with two fourth-quarter touchdowns and posted a 35-10 victory.

IUP led Gannon in first downs (22-14), total yards (367-164), rushing yards (54-0), passing yards (313-164), turnovers (9-3), and time of possession (30:54-29:06). Gannon’s rushing totals were diminished by a loss of 21 yards on a bad snap and another 15 yards on a fumble. Anthony Weaver and Jon Richardson led the Gannon rushing attack with 37 and 31 yards, respectively. Goff, Sylvester Burel, and Carmen Ciampi made two receptions each.

Kevin Minor led the defensive troops with 12 tackles. Tomar Pettis added 11 stops. Cook picked off two IUP passes while Aaron Roberson recorded four pass break-ups. Gannon dropped to 4-6 overall and 2-5 in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) Western Division. Indiana (Pa.) improved to 7-2 overall and 5-2 in conference play. The Golden Knights conclude the regular season Saturday, November 8 against an opponent to be determined.

BLOOMSBURG (2008: 9-1, 6-1 PSAC East)

Joe Wright’s one-yard run with 2:26 to play in the game lifted the 19th-ranked West Chester Golden Rams to a 24-21 win over previously unbeaten Bloomsburg University in front over 6,700 fans. The loss snapped the Huskies school-record tying 14-game winning streak dating back to last year, while the win gives the Golden Rams the PSAC Eastern Division crown and a date next week with California (PA) for the PSAC championship.

The game-winning drive started the on the Golden Rams 20-yard after the Huskies had a missed a field goal after a recovering a fumble at the West Chester seven-yard line. The Rams moved down the field in 13-plays, aided by a personal foul call against the Huskies on a second and 17 play with the ball at the West Chester 23-yard line. The penalty moved the ball out to the WCU 38-yard line. Later in the drive Wright completed a 29-yard pass to Ryan Paulson putting the ball at the Bloomsburg three-yard line. After three running plays moved the ball to within inches of the goal, Wright snuck in on a fourth-down play putting West Chester in front 24-21.

Bloomsburg got a 42-yard kickoff return by Jesse Cooper, but on a fourth and two play from midfield, the Huskies managed just one yard and turned the ball over on downs. West Chester was able to retain possession for the remaining minute and 26 seconds to get the win.

West Chester opened the scoring in the first period taking the opening kickoff and driving 71-yards in nine plays capped off by Pat McDermott’s four-yard run. The Golden Rams added to their lead early in the second quarter when Alex Walsh hit a 20-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Bloomsburg finally got on the board before halftime when Kyle Ream caught a four-yard pass from Dan Latorre to cap an 18-play, 94-yard drive that ate up over 10 minutes of clock.

On the ensuing drive for Bloomsburg, Latorre connected with Ream on a five-yard pass play to make it 21-17. The big play in the drive was a 33-yard run by Latorre down to the West Chester five-yard line.

On the kickoff, the Huskies Thomas McFarland forced a fumble by return man Dan DePalma that was recovered by the Huskies at the seven-yard line. On a first down play the Huskies gained four yards to three, but were called for holding. goal attempt by the Huskies Jon Koenig.
A five-yard gain and two incomplete pass attempts forced a field goal attempt by the Huskies Jon Koenig. The Huskies took their first lead of the game on the opening drive of the third period. Stefan Adams scored from two yard outs to put Bloomsburg in front, 14-10. West Chester regained the lead later in the period when Mike Washington caught a three-yard pass from Wright. On the drive Wright connected with Washington on a 30-yard gain down to the Huskies’ seven-yard line. The 28-yard attempt though missed setting up West Chester’s game winning drive.

Latorre finished 10 of 19 for 74 yards and two scores, while Ream caught four passes for 20 yards and two scores.

HUSKIES IN THE NFL

On April 30, 2006 the New Orleans Saints selected former Bloomsburg All-American offensive tackle Jahri Evans in the fourth round (108th overall) in the NFL draft.

Last season, Evans started all 16 games for the Saints, as the team went 7-9 in the regular season. Before Evans, the last BU alumni in the NFL was Eric Jonassen who was drafted as lineman for the San Diego Chargers in 1992. The most notable former Husky in the NFL was the Giants’ Bob Tucker who had an 11-year career in which he caught 422 passes for 5,421 yards and scored 27 touchdowns. Tucker still ranks fourth all-time in school history with 131 receptions.
RANKINGS

Following the loss to West Chester, The Huskies fall 16th in the d2football.com media poll and to 14th in the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Coaches’ Poll. Bloomsburg is fourth in Super Regional One, the northeast regional ranking.

PLAYOFF SCENARIO

If the Huskies were to defeat Gannon on Saturday, Bloomsburg would almost be guaranteed to move up to at least the third position in Super Regional One, which would secure a home playoff game on November 15th. If California (Pa.) were to defeat West Chester, the Golden Rams would have two PSAC losses and would likely drop below Bloomsburg in Super Regional One. If the Golden Rams defeat the Vulcans, the Vulcans would also have two conference losses. The other game that will factor into the Huskies playoff position is American International College visiting Southern Connecticut State. AIC currently holds the second seed in the regional rankings, and they host a SCSU team that needs to win to secure a playoff spot. A SCSU win would give the Huskies a first round bye in the NCAA Playoffs. If the Huskies were to lose to Gannon, the Huskies still could make the playoffs, but would need for a few breaks to go their way in order to make it.

ON THE DEFENSIVE

Over the last five contests, the Huskies have only surrendered an average of 93.6 yards per game on the ground, after surrendering 135 yards per game though their first five contests, an improvement of almost 40 yards per game. That defense will be tested by Gannon tailback Jon Richardson, who ranks third in the PSAC in rushing with 898 yards and nine touchdowns this season. In ten games this season, Bloomsburg has surrendered only 3,026 total yards, an average of 302 yards per game. That’s nearly a 100% improvement over 10 games played last season, where the Huskies surrendered 5,251 yards or 386 yards-per-game.

WINNING STREAK

With his two touchdowns catches against West Chester, Kyle Ream joins an elite group of receivers this decade that have double digit touchdown catches in one season. Brahin Bilal (2006), Steve Burke (2003), Rocco Fargione (2002), Tierell Johnson (2001), and Mike Lelko (2000) were the others. Ream in second in the PSAC in touchdown catches this season with 10, averaging a touchdown almost every three times he touches the ball.

LATORRE

Dan Latorre moved into new territory in the loss to West Chester. Latorre’s two touchdown losses against the Golden Rams gives him 44 for his career and moves him past Rick Lichtel (1965-1967) into third place all-time in touchdown passes against Bloomsburg quarterback. He now needs 14 touchdown passes to pass Glen McNamee (1993-1996) for second place in that category. Also, Latorre now has 5,180 career passing yards, putting him in fourth place in school history in passing yards. He needs just six yards passing against Gannon to pass Jack Lydic (2002-2005) for third place all-time in career passing yards.

RIGHT PRICE

Against West Chester, tailback Derrick Price set the single-season rushing record by a freshman, breaking Jamar Brittingham’s 2004 mark of 991 yards. Price now has 1,064 yards rushing this season. Price also eclipsed 1,000 yards rushing, marking the sixth consecutive season the Huskies have had a running back rush for over 1,000 yards. The last time Bloomsburg didn’t have a 1,000 yard rusher was in 2002, when Julius Brown led the team with 685 yards rushing.

RUNNING STRONG

With 2,937 rushing yards this season, the Huskies need 475 yards in their next two games to break the mark of 3,412 rushing yards by the 2005 team for the most rushing yards by a team in school history. The Huskies have rushed for almost 1,000 more yards than the next closest team in the PSAC (California) and only Cal has scored more touchdowns on the ground. The Huskies defense has done the reverse to opposing ballcarriers, as opposing backs are only averaging 3.4 yards-per-carry against the Huskies front.

SCOUTING GANNON

The Golden Knights entered the 2008 season coming off of a 1-10 season in coach Jim Kiernan’s inaugural campaign, but an improved defense and impressive running game has helped the Golden knights to a three-win improvement in 2008. Gannon’s strongest unit is their defensive line led by defensive end Matt Freed. Freed leads the PSAC in tackles for loss and is tied with the Huskies Jon Ochs for the conference lead in sacks. They also only surrender 3.2 yards per carry on the ground, the third lowest number in the PSAC.

Bloomsburg University Huskies
HISTORIANS CORNER by Bob Dunkelberger

BOUNCING BACK

Bloomsburg’s school record-tying 14-game winning streak came to an end on Saturday in the same manner the first one set from 1949-50 did, with a loss to West Chester. The Huskies fell by a score of 31-6 at West Chester on November 10, 1950 to end that 14-game win streak. Bloomsburg quickly rebounded from the loss to win 12 in a row immediately following that loss, for a total of 26 victories in 27 games, including the second undefeated season in school history in 1951.

HALF TIME

The Huskies trailed at halftime for only the second time all season, and the first time since the opener against Ashland when they came from behind to win. In the 180 games that Danny Hale has been Bloomsburg’s head coach, his teams have a record of 113-9 when ahead at the half, 4-2 when tied, but only 17-34-1 when trailing.

GANNON

Gannon is the third team this season the Huskies are facing for the first time ever, with Ashland and Mercyhurst being the other two. The last time Bloomsburg faced three new opponents in a single regular season was 83 years ago during the 1925 season, when the Huskies first played the Free Land Mining and Mechanical Institute, Indiana (PA) and West Chester. The last time two new teams were played in the same regular season was in 1990, when Bloomsburg took on Central Connecticut and Youngstown State.

THIS WEEK IN THE PSAC

WEEK EIGHT CAPSULES

East Stroudsburg vs. Slippery Rock

Slippery Rock faces a stiff test in this inter-sectional matchup as they try to slow down perhaps the top offense in the PSAC. Rock RB Ryan Lehmeier has emerged as Slippery Rock's top threat on offense, averaging just under 90 yards-per-game. ESU QB Tim Roken is second in the PSAC in total offense averaging 252.2 yards-per-game.

Mercyhurst vs. Shippensburg

Expect a slugfest as two of the PSAC's top defenses duke it out at Seth Grove Stadium. The Red Raiders secondary has only allowed opposing quarterbacks to complete 50 percent of their passes, while the Mercyhurst defense ranks third in the PSAC in yards allowed.

PSAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

California (Pa.) vs. West Chester

The "State Game" makes it's triumphant return as these two conference powers play to claim the first outright PSAC crown. In the first meeting between these two teams, California defeated West Chester 44-32. Both teams feature top quarterbacks, as Kevin McCabe paces Cal and Joe Wright leads West Chester.

Millersville vs. Edinboro

The Fighting Scots and their high-powered offense invade Beimsderfer Stadium to take on the Mauranders. Edinboro quarterback Trevor Harris is in contention for PSAC Player of the Year honors after completing 64.5 percent of his passes for 2,444 yards and five interceptions. For Millersville, no player has come on as strong as TB Cardoza Jacks, who averages 5.4 yards per carry.

PSAC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

September 20 - Greg Myers (Philadelphia/Dobbins)

Myers made a team-high 10 tackles, including six solo stops, as Bloomsburg topped Kutztown 31-21. He had half a tackle for loss and also broke up a pass.

September 13 - Jon Ochs (Wind Gap/Nazareth)

Against Kutztown, Ochs recorded six tackles, all solo, four of which were tackles for loss, of which three of those were sacks. His four tackles for loss totaled 34 yards and his three sacks resulted in 32 yards lost. He also forced three fumbles and recovered a fumble that later led to a Bloomsburg score.

August 31 - Kenny Domzalski (Millford, Pa./Delaware Valley)

Against Ashland, Domzalski, a red-shirt freshman, ran for 172 on just 16 carries to help the Huskies score a come-from-behind upset win over No. 15 Ashland on the road. Domzalski averaged a staggering 10.8 yards per carry and also scored the game-winning touchdown on a 23-yard run with just 54 seconds to go in the fourth quarter, breaking a 42-42 tie to give Bloomsburg the 49-42 victory.
Bloomsburg at Ashland
August 30th, 2008

Kenny Domzalski’s 23-yard scoring run with 54 seconds left in the game lifted the 25-th ranked Bloomsburg University Huskies to a 49-42, come-from-behind win over 15th ranked Ashland University in the season opener for both teams.

Domzalski’s touchdown capped a furious second half comeback for Bloomsburg which trailed 35-14 at the break. The comeback was the biggest for the Huskies since trailing by 17 points (24-7) to East Stroudsburg in 2003 but rallied for a 40-37 win.

Trailing by 21 at the break, Bloomsburg started the second half with a nine-play, 73-yard drive capped off by Stefan Adams five yard scoring run to make it 35-21. After the Huskies defense forced the first Ashland punt of the game on the Eagles first drive of the second half, Bloomsburg marched 54 yards in just six plays with quarter back Dan Latorre hitting Kyle Ream with 32-yard scoring pass to make it 35-28 with 6:13 left in the third period.

Ashland went three and out on its next series with the Huskies quickly marching 68 yards in just three plays capped by Latorre hitting Ben Weaber with a 17-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 35-35 with 2:11 left in the third. A key play in the drive was a 48-yard run by Domzalski.

Bloomsburg’s defense made forced a big turnover early in the fourth period when Thomas McFarland (Pottsville/Pottsville) intercepted a Billy Cundiff pass giving the Huskies the ball at the Ashland 42-yard line. Two plays later Adams ran 31-yards for a score to give Bloomsburg its first lead of the game at 42-35.

Taking over on its own 35-yard line, Bloomsburg moved out to its own 47 on consecutive runs by Domzalski. Then following an incomplete pass, Ashland was flagged for a personal foul putting the ball at the Eagles 39-yard line. Fullback Ryan Maggs (Beech Creek/ Central Mountain) then gained 16 yards on his first-ever carry, then Domzalski capped the comeback with his 23-yard run.

Ashland, though, still had time, but the Bloomsburg defense forced a fumble by the Eagles, but could only run the clock down to the 15 seconds giving the home team one more shot. The Eagles got a 26-yard completion to the BU 40, but a pass as time expired fell short and the Huskies got the win.

The first half, though was all Ashland as the Eagles scored five times, including its first score which came just 16 seconds into the game after an 84-yard opening season kickoff return by Horn.

Domzalski, in his first game for the Huskies, gained 172 yards on 16 carries and scored once. Fellow freshman Derrick Price also topped 100-yards gaining 132 on 24 carries with one score. Adams finished with 40 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Latorre finished 11 of 22 for 158 yards and three touchdowns and no interceptions. Defensively, Oscar Rivera led the Huskies with eight tackles.

In all, the two teams combined for nearly 1,000 yards of offense, but Ashland was held to just 180 in the second half after gaining 319 in the opening 30 minutes.
Red-shirt freshman Oscar Rivera's 52-yard interception return for a touchdown lifted 18th-ranked Bloomsburg University to a 24-17 win over fifth-ranked California (PA) University. The game was the first played in the newly renovated Redman Stadium and was played in a steady downpour.

Rivera's game-changing play came late in the third period with the Huskies clinging to a 17-14 lead. Vulcan's quarterback Kevin McCabe went back to pass, but Rivera stepped in front of the throw near mid-field and raced towards the end zone dragging McCabe with him for the final five yards. The return gave the Huskies a 24-14 lead, which they held on to for their second straight upset win of a higher-ranked team.

Bloomsburg started quickly in the game scoring on its opening possession with Stefan Adams capping the 76-yard drive with a four-yard run. A big play in the drive was a 30-yard run by freshman Derrick Price who gained a total of 72 yards on the drive on five carries.

In the second period the Huskies made it 14-0 when quarterback Dan Latorre scrambled 49-yards for a score. The first half for Bloomsburg was a marked difference from a week ago when the Huskies trailed 15th-ranked Ashland, 35-14. This week the Huskies allowed just 76 yards of offense, while gaining 228 themselves.

California got on the board in the third period when McCabe hit Marcel Pestano with a 49-yard scoring pass to bring the Vulcans within seven points at 14-7 with 8:39 left in the third.

After the Huskies recovered a muffed punt from Cal, on the next play Latorre was intercepted by Patrick Swearinger. The Vulcans then needed just three plays to tie the game with the score coming from Windell Brown on a 38-yard run with 5:59 to play in the third.

On its ensuing drive the Huskies moved inside the Cal 20-yard line before the drive stalled. Jon Koenig then hit a 35-yard field goal to put the Huskies in front 17-14.

It was on Cal's next drive that Rivera's game-changing play occurred. Later the Vulcans got back within a touchdown early in the fourth period when Derek Fiorenza connected on a 23-yard field goal, 1-49 0:08, CAL 7 - BLOOM 17.

After Cal's defense forced a three and out for the Huskies, the Vulcans ate up over six minutes of clock, but had their drive stall at the Bloomsburg 33-yard line. McCabe threw three straight incompletions turning the ball over on downs with 1:48 to go.

Bloomsburg was able to run out the clock after Kenny Domzalski picked up a first down with an 11-yard run with under a minute to go.

Overall, Price finished with 169 yards rushing on 26 carries as the Huskies totaled 325 yards on the ground. McCabe led Cal with 153 yards passes on 11 of 25 with one score and one interception.
Quarterback Dan Latorre threw one touchdown and ran for two more and defensive tackle Jon Ochs had three sacks in the game to lead the 11th-ranked Bloomsburg University Huskies to a 24-0 win over Mercyhurst College on Saturday. It was the first shutout for the Huskies since 2005.

After a scoreless first period, Bloomsburg got on the board when Latorre threw a short pass to Kenny Domzalski who took it 43 yards for a touchdown.

The Huskies second score was set up by Ochs who sacked Laker quarterback Garrett Kensy and forced a fumble and recovered the ball on the play to give Bloomsburg the ball at its own 44-yard line. Three plays later Latorre ran two yards for a touchdown giving the Huskies a 14-0 lead at halftime.

In the second half, Ochs sacked Kensy for a seven-yard loss ending a Mercyhurst drive and giving Bloomsburg the ball at the Huskies 46 yard line. Eight plays later, Jon Koenig hit a 38-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead.

Bloomsburg's final score came in the fourth period when Latorre faked a handoff and kept the ball for a 15-yard touchdown run.

Mercyhurst was driving late in the game to get on the board and avoid the shutout when Ochs sacked backup quarterback Cody Ladutko forcing another fumble that was eventually recovered by the Huskies ending the threat.

Latorre finished nine of 17 for 156 yards and a touchdown through the air and netted a loss of one yard on the ground with his two touchdowns. Ochs finished with six tackles, four of them for losses and three of them sacks for losses totaling 32 yards. As a team the Huskies gained 490 yards of offense to just 222 for Mercyhurst.

Bloomsburg, 3-0, will open PSAC East play next week hosting Kutztown at 1 p.m.
Quarterback Dan Latorre threw for 210 yards and two touchdowns to lead the 10th-ranked Bloomsburg University Huskies (4-0, 1-0 PSAC East) to a 31-21 win over Kutztown University (1-3, 0-1 PSAC East) on Saturday.

Latorre connected on throws 55 and 28 yards to help the Huskies, winners of nine straight dating back to last year, rally twice in the game.

Kutztown took the early lead in the game when Matt Dineen connected on a 37-yard field goal with 1:22 left in the first period. Bloomsburg then scored on the ensuing drive when Jon Koenig hit a 35-yard field goal after the Huskies drive stalled at the Golden Bear 18-yard line.

Kutztown regained the lead later in the period when Shane Martin hit Kaleb Klosky with a 15-yard scoring pass with 3:25 left in the half. On Bloomsburg’s next possession the Huskies needed just three plays to tie the score as Latorre hit Kyle Ream with a 55-yard pass to make it 10-10 at the half.

In the third period the Huskies took the lead for the first time in the game. Starting the Kutztown 28-yard line after a short punt and a face mask penalty, Latorre and Ream clicked on the first play of the drive on a 28-yard scoring strike for a 17-10 lead.

Kutztown cut in the Huskies lead with a 34-yard field goal on the Golden Bears next possession, but Bloomsburg responded with a seven-play, 63-yard scoring drive to extend its lead. On a second and 17-play from the Bloomsburg 45-yard line, Latorre hit connected on a 28-yard scoring strike for a 17-10 lead.

The Golden Bears got one more score as Martin hit Jason Uhlig on a seven-yard touchdown pass with 1:47 to play in the game, then added a two-point conversion pass to close to within a field goal at 24-21.

Overall, Latorre was 10-15 for 210 yards, one interception and two scores. Price was held below 100-yards for the first time this season as he finished with 60 yards on the ground. Defensively, Greg Myers had 10 tackles, six of them solo, while Earl McNeil had seven tackles, all solo in the game. Martin finished with 161 yards through the air for Kutztown.

Dan Latorre passed for 133 yards and one score to lead Bloomsburg University to a 13-6 win over C.W. Post in Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference action.

The Huskies jumped out to a 3-0 lead in the first quarter scoring on their first drive of the game. Taking on its own 33-yard line, Bloomsburg drove to the CW Post 25-yard line before the drive stalled. Jon Koenig then connected on a 42-yard field goal putting the visitors in front.

Bloomsburg made it 10-0 with just 36 seconds left before halftime when Latorre hit Kyle Ream with a 12-yard pass for a 10-0 advantage.

C.W. Post got on the board in the third period putting together a nine-play, 64-yard scoring drive with Jason Gwaltney going in from nine-yards out. The extra point though failed and the Pioneers trailed by a score of 10-6.

In the fourth period, the Huskies added to their lead when Koenig hit his second field goal of the day, this one from 30-yards out for a 13-6 lead with 8:56 to go.

The Pioneers started the ensuing drive on the Bloomsburg 47-yard line after a good kickoff return and a personal foul on the Huskies. On third and eight from the 45-yard line yard, CW Post quarterback Nick Georgetti threw a long pass towards the end zone that was broken up at the last second by Alex Landis. The breakup prevented what could have been the tying score.

After the Huskies got the ball back and took more than five minutes off the clock, the drive stalled giving the Pioneers one more shot. But, on a third and three from the CW Post 42-yard line, the Huskies' Andre Ellis intercepted a Georgetti pass giving Bloomsburg the win.

Latorre finished the game 14-26 for 133 yards and the one touchdown, while tailback Derrick Price rushed for 89 yards. Defensively, Greg Myers had eight tackles to lead Bloomsburg.
Bloomsgurk got a big break on the first punt of the game when Justin Rivera forced a Andy Tischbein fumble to set the Huskies up at midfield. From there, Price ripped off runs of 18 and 11 yards, capping it off with a 11 yard touchdown jaunt to put Bloomsgurk up 7-0.

On the ensuing possession, Andre Ellis picked off his second pass of the season to give the Huskies the ball at their own 36 yard line. Latorre hit Kyle Ream on a 42-yard strike, setting up caught an eight-yard touchdown pass to Ryan Barr to give the Huskies a 14-0 lead after one quarter of play.

Bloomsburg University (8-0, 5-0 PSAC East) rolled up 538 yards of total offense and ran its third-best in the nation winning streak to 13 with a 43-7 win over Cheyney University (0-8, 0-5 PSAC East) on Saturday.

The 13 straight wins is the second longest streak in school history (record is 14) and the third longest in all of college football behind Tuskegee (D-II) at 21 wins and 19 for Wisconsin-Whitewater (D-III).

Playing without its top two tailbacks out due to a one-game suspension, Bloomsburg rushed for 393 with both James Sweeting III (Hughesville/Hughesville) and Marc Best (Bushkill/East Stroudsburg North) gaining over 100 yards on the ground. Sweeting ran for a career-high 116 yards, while Best rushed for a career-high 104 yards.

The Huskies scored on their opening drive of the game when Stefan Adams (West Chester/Henderson) scored on a 14-yard run to cap an 11-play, 80-yard drive and got a two-point run for an 8-0 lead. Bloomsburg added to its lead with three second period scores. Ryan Barr (Fayetteville, GA/Starrs Mill) caught a 35-yard scoring pass from Dan Latorre (Elysburg/Southern Columbia), then, Adams scored on runs of three and 22 yards for a 29-0 Huskies lead at halftime.

In the second half, the Huskies rested many of their regulars, but still put two scores on the board. Kyle Ream (Eliottsburg/West Perry) caught a four-yard scoring pass from backup quarterback Mike Wagner (Hershey/Hershey) on the opening drive of the third period, then Mike Quintans (Media/Penncrest) scored on a six-yard run early in the fourth period. Cheyney’s lone score came on a 58-yard pass from Ronald Thompson to Darryl Jones in the third period.

Adams finished with 73 yards rushing on 11 carries and three touchdowns, while Mike Varanavage made five tackles to lead the defense.
Quarterback Dan Latorre (Elysburg/Southern Columbia) rushed for 125 yards and two touchdowns to lead Bloomsburg University (9-0, 6-0 PSAC East) to a 21-0 win over Shippensburg University in Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference (PSAC) action. The win was the 14th straight for the Huskies dating back to last year which ties the school record first set back during the 1949-50 seasons. The winning streak is the third longest in all of college football.

The 125 yards rushing for Latorre, on just eight carries, was a career-high, while the shutout was the second of the season for the Huskies.

Bloomsburg scored on its second drive of the game when Derrick Price (Burlington, NJ/Burlington City) ran 37-yards for a score. On the drive Bloomsburg converted a fourth and one, which two plays later led to Price’s touchdown run. The Huskies added to their lead in the second quarter when Latorre scrambled 48-yards down the sideline for a touchdown to make it 14-0 capping a 91-yard scoring drive. A big play in the drive was a 26-yard pickup on a swing pass from Latorre to Price.

Then, just before halftime the Huskies added to their lead when Latorre scrambled out of the pocket again and went 47-yard down the sidelines for his second score of the day and a 21-0 lead.

In the second half, with the game being played in a steady rain, there was no scoring for either team.

Along with Latorre rushing for more than 100 yards, Price finished with 111 yards on 21 carries and a touchdown.

The win sets up a showdown next week with West Chester for the PSAC Eastern Division title. Kickoff at Bloomsburg’s Redman Stadium is set for 3:30 p.m. Both teams are undefeated in PSAC East
Joe Wright's one-yard run with 2:26 to play in the game lifted the 19th-ranked West Chester Golden Rams to a 24-21 win over previously unbeaten Bloomsburg University on Saturday in front of over 6,700 fans. The loss snapped the Huskies school-record tying 14-game winning streak dating back to last year, while the win gives the Golden Rams the PSAC Eastern Division crown and a date next week with California (Pa) for the PSAC championship.

The game-winning drive started the on the Golden Rams 20-yard after the Huskies had missed a field goal after recovering a fumble at the West Chester seven-yard line. The Rams moved down the field in 13-plays, aided by a personal foul call against the Huskies on a second and 17 play with the ball at the West Chester 23-yard line. The penalty moved the ball out to the WCU 38-yard line. After three running plays moved the ball to within inches of the goal, Wright snuck in on a fourth-down play putting West Chester in front 24-21.

Bloomsburg got a 42-yard kickoff return by Jesse Cooper, but on a fourth and two play from midfield, the Huskies managed just one yard and turned the ball over on downs. West Chester was able to retain possession for the remaining minute and 26 seconds to get the win.

West Chester opened the scoring in the first period taking the opening kickoff and driving 71-yards in nine plays capped off by Pat McDermott's four-yard run. The Golden Rams added to their lead early in the second quarter when Alex Walsh hit a 20-yard field goal to make it 10-0.

Bloomsburg finally got on the board before halftime when Kyle Ream caught a four-yard pass from Dan Latorre to cap an 18-play, 94-yard drive that ate up over 10 minutes of clock.

The Huskies took their first lead of the game on the opening drive of the third period. Stefan Adams scored from two yard outs to put Bloomsburg in front, 14-10. West Chester regained the lead later in the period when Mike Washington caught a three-yard pass from Wright. On the drive Wright connected with Washington on a 30-yard gain down to the Huskies' seven-yard line.

On the ensuing drive for Bloomsburg, Latorre connected with Ream on a five-yard pass to make it 21-17. The big play in the drive was a 33-yard run by Latorre down to the West Chester five-yard line.

On the kickoff, the Huskies forced a fumble by return man Dan DePalma that was recovered by the Huskies at the seven-yard line. On a first down play the Huskies gained four yards to three, but were called for holding. A five-yard gain and two incomplete pass attempts forced a field goal attempt by the Huskies Jon Koenig. The 28-yard attempt though missed setting up West Chester's game winning drive.

Latorre finished 10 of 19 for 74 yards and two scores, while Ream caught four passes for 20 yards and two scores. Wright finished 14-26 for 228 yards and one score passing and one score rushing, with the winner advancing to the PSAC championship game on Nov. 8.
